HYDE PARK YOUTH COUNCIL

SPOOK ALLEY

It's coming....... Haunted Hyde Park Hollow and Little Boo Spook Alley! Ready for a scare? A scream? Get ready to run! We are ready for you! Bahaha! Oct. 26 & 27, (Fri & Sat) 7:00 - 10:00 pm and Oct. 29 (Monday) 6:30 - 9:00 pm. $3 at the Hyde Park City Office. We can't wait to see you!

Good Neighbor Award

We had an avalanche of nominations for our September Good Neighbor. It is unanimous that Mark & Celia Ashcroft are winners in the great neighbor category! Neighbors shared that the Ashcrofts extend kindness, friendship, time, talents and treats. The Ashcrofts look for ways to serve their neighbors and friends. Beautiful produce and fruit from their large garden is shared with many. Celia also shares her cooking expertise with lessons on how to make jams, pickle cucumbers, canning, etc. Mark & Celia touch lots of lives and they are respected and adored. One neighbor described them as the "light of the neighborhood."

Thank you Mark & Celia for helping make Hyde Park such a great place to live! We loved hearing from so many neighbors that you have impacted.

Do you have a neighbor like the Ashcrofts? We would love to surprise them with the Good Neighbor Award. Send us a note and let us know at HPGoodNeighbor@gmail.com

What is Happening in the City?

Message from Mayor Flint

This month we are going into the watery underbelly of the city….the gutters, ditches, ponds, and canals. Come with me and let us consider the state of stormwater control, and why it is that we all pay $3 each month on our utility bill for that mysterious purpose.

First you may be wondering why we concern ourselves with such a natural phenomenon as water from above. Well we are mandated by the state to take certain actions and, if that were not enough, we are often mandated by phone calls from panicky citizens to take some action immediately. When water from a frozen field comes sluicing off into your basement you gain an immediate heartfelt appreciation for stormwater control.

If you have ever visited the Grand Canyon you can appreciate the power of water, so we try to channel, contain, divert, and control where the water from the heavens goes once it hits the ground. If you bought a home with a large hollowed out spot on it, or a grassy ditch in front, NEVER fill those in. That large grassy hollow is a detention pond for stormwater to collect in so it doesn’t collect in someone’s basement and those ditches lead stormwater to the pond rather than letting it meander into your home. If you have already committed one of these heinous sins of filling in ditches or hollows, repent immediately, and go dig them out!

Now what about the canals? Aren’t they for irrigation? And when the water is piped aren’t they just handy places for grass clippings, branches, or animal droppings? NO! Remember the frozen fields and water sluicing? Or a drenching summer rain? (Ahh remember when it used to rain?) When the waters come down the canals fill up and, if you block them with anything, all our planning for flood possibilities are for naught. The rains come down, the canals go up……and over into someone’s yard and home. Don’t do it! If you have committed this heinous sin of throwing stuff into the canal, repent immediately, and go remove all that stuff!

One more thought and then we will leave this aquas subject. Did you know that you are mandated by the state to not allow stormwater to flow from your yard onto the road? Yes it’s true. If you are allowing this to happen, repent immediately, and fix it!

They say that repentance is good for the soul and now we know it is also good for the city, especially when it comes to stormwater control. Thanks for your help and Happy Halloween!

Jr. Youth Council

The Jr Council visited our Police Department and our Fire Department on 9/11. Kathy Kaye Foods supplied popcorn treats for us to take to the men and women who serve all of us and help keep us safe. We appreciate all the service they give to our community. #weremember

Youth Council Corner

The Youth Council has had a busy few months

In August we had a great time helping serve the community at the North Park Police Night out Against Crime event. This was a great event.

We also had a great turnout for the annual Slip n Slide at Lions Park. Thanks for all those that came and supported these fun events. We have the best community and we love serving Hyde Park City.

We are busy planning some new Scares for the annual Spook Alley. We hope to see you there in Oct. You won’t want to miss it.
