The Tenant

- a. Service records shall be tied to the landlord's property, but may be listed in the tenant's name.
- b. In order to setup services in the tenant's name, the tenant must pay an $100.00 deposit and be responsible for that account.
- c. If an account exceeds $200.00 and is not paid within 15 days after due date, a shut off notice will be sent out giving the resident one (1) week to make payment, if payment is not made, the water services shall be shut off with a $75.00 reconnect fee. Services shall not be resumed to that resident at that address, until the account is paid in full with cash or money order.
- d. A tenant who moves from the City shall pay the balance in full and notify the City Office of their last date of service and/or termination date. Tenant(s) shall be responsible to notify the City Office of their forwarding address for final billing.
- e. After payment is received, the $100.00 deposit will be refunded to the forwarding address given to the City.
